Aero Instruments & Avionics uses cookies on our website aeroinst.com. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device on your web browser. They help us improve your browsing experience by remembering your preferences and enabling certain functionalities.

Types of Cookies We Use

1. Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable basic features like page navigation and access to secure areas.
2. Performance Cookies: The cookies collect information about how you use our website, such as the pages you visit most often. This data helps us improve the websites performance.
3. Function Cookies: These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make (such as your username, language, or region) and provide enhanced, more personalized features.
4. Analytics Cookies: These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website by collecting and reporting information anonymously.

Managing Cookies

You can control and manage cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to refuse or accept cookies, delete existing cookies, or set your browser to notify you when you receive a new cookie. Please note that disabling cookies may affect the functionality of our website.

Changes to This Policy

We may update our Cookie Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Cookie Policy on this page. You are advised to periodically review our Cookie Policy for any changes.
